therefore the honor to recom-

may be viewed favorably and sanction obtained for the payment of half pay for the period during which he

Dated. 8th August 1845 } J. A. Master Collector.

Submitted to Government
through the Accountant, General with reference to
G. O. 30th July 1845 No 1608.

The Deputy Tahildar having taken sick leave, half of his pay or Rupees 35 is available.

The deputation allowance at 20 per cent due to the Ag. incumbent is Rs. 14 and that to the other persons officiating in the arrangement is Rupees 11-0-0 amounting on the whole to Rupees 25-0-0. This leaves a balance of Rs. 9-0-0 to the credit of Government.

The Board request that Government will be pleased to sanction the payment of this amount also to the acting Deputy Tahildar.

The whole amount which he will then draw, viz, Rupees 43-0-0 is not too much for service at a station like Ramandroog, which is

^{3/26/44}
is very distasteful to natives.
