Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 13th February 1875.

No. 327. Read the following letter from T. MOSS, Esq., Controller of Public Works Accounts, to Colonel G. W. WALKER, R.E., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 23rd January 1875, No. 9,224:—

As the application from the Collector of Madras, printed with G. O., No. 158, of the 12th instant, was unnecessarily made, and, as the provision of funds from the Senate-house is not required, I have the honor to report, for the information of Government, that at my suggestion the Accountant-General of Madras has

2. The Consulting Architect to Government, as a Range Officer constructing numerous works, has a distinct stock account, and, as the rules of the department require that charges for land taken up for manufacture should be debited to stock, it is not necessary, as stated above, that the Senate-house should bear the debit for the land now to be taken up.
