In addition to these there are two other Imperial Post Offices opened at Poramamillah and Kovilady in the districts of Cuddapah and Tanjore, respectively, which are still undergoing their experimental term, and which are also found to be paying the cost of only their office establishments. The former of these offices has got three runners on a salary of Rupees 5 each attached to connect it with Badwail, where there is an Imperial Post Office, and the latter two runners on the same salary to connect it with Trivady Post Office.

3. As the whole four Imperial Post Offices above referred to are of great public utility, and the closing of them would involve the inhabitants of those stations into serious inconvenience, I have the honor to request that the Board will be pleased to accord their sanction to the payment of the salary of the nine runners alluded to, amounting to Rupees 45 per mensem.

SUBMITTED for the sanction of Government.

2. The charge, amounting to Rupees 45 per mensem, can be met from savings in the District Postal Allotments.
