No. 154. ORDER THEREON, 12th March 1875, No. 406.

Miscellaneous.

THE Board report, for the confirmation of Government, their Proceedings sanctioning the continuance to one Akkamma, a widow, and the legal heir of the late incumbent, an annual allowance of Rs. 358-2-8 on the ground that it is "hereditary." They do this apparently under paragraph 2 of G. O., dated 27th August 1861, No. 1,719, by which they were authorized to follow this course "in the case of grants acknowledged to be perpetual."

2. That order is not, however, applicable to the present case. This is one of those several allowances which the Civil Auditor retrenched about 24 years ago, and the continuance of which was sanctioned by Government in the following terms:—

"All the allowances under retrenchment have been continued under the orders of the Board issued more than 20 years ago. He (the Governor in Council) does not consider it necessary, after so long a amounting, per statement submitted by the Collector of Cuddapah on the 12th September 1851, to Rupees 2,143-4-5 per annum, he desires that on the occurrence of lapses, the circumstances of each family may be reported for the orders of Government in the prescribed form, and no further payment made after any such lapse without their previous sanction."

3. The continuance of the pension in question under the above order was in the name of Nundiala Raghavaraze. This person died on the 6th March 1874. The Board, overlooking the Proceedings of 1851 already quoted, have sanctioned the payment of the pension to his widow, subject to confirmation, pro forma.

4. Before this sanction is confirmed, the Board will be requested to submit a report on the merits of the case, to show that the allowance is strictly hereditary.

to Akkamma, widow and legal heir of N. Raghavaraze, the late incumbent.

[M.L. 11th February 1875 No. 309.]

The Board report for the confirmation of Govt. their Proceedings sanctioning the continuance to one Akkamma, a widow and the legal heir of the late incumbent, an annual allowance of Rs. 358-2-8 on the ground that it is "hereditary". They do this apparently under para 2 of G.O. dated 27th August 1861 No. 1719 by which they were authorized to follow this course in the he desires that on the occurrence of lapses the circumstances of each family may be reported for the orders of Government in the prescribed form, and no further payment made after any such lapse without their previous sanction."

3. The continuance of the pension in question under the above order was in the name of Kandial Ragavaraze. This person died on the 6th March 1874. The Board, instead of submitting the case for overlooking the orders of Govt. agreeably to the Proceedings of 1851 already quoted, have have sanctioned the payment of the pension to his widow, subject to confirmation, pro forma.

4. Orders are requested as to whether this sanction is to be confirmed, or the Board are to be required to submit a report on the merits of the case, to show that the allowance is strictly hereditary.
