2. The President having submitted the Budget Estimates with a mere covering letter, without any explanation of the entries, the Government have no means of ascertaining how far they are correct, but the variations are not such as to make it necessary to call for further information before passing the Budget. It is to be observed, however, that although the opening balance is estimated at Rupees 4,900, neither the sanctioned Budget for the current year, nor the regular Estimates given in the last column of the statements now submitted, show how that figure has been arrived at.
