ABSTRACT.—Forwarding the plan of the Collector's Cutcherry-compound called for in Board's Proceedings, Miscellaneous No. 7,749, dated 6th November 1874.

IT seems to the Board that the plan which has been referred to them for report will provide additional accommodation which is urgently required in a suitable manner and at a moderate cost, considering the amount of work to be done.

2. The only suggestion the Board have to make is that it would be advantageous to connect the two main buildings (the relative position of which is not shown) by a covered passage.
