No. 121. Read the following letter from R. W. LODWICK, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort St. George, 8th March 1875, No. 694 :—

Treasury—Account Department.

I have the honor to report that the Collector of Chingleput, in the month of September last, disbursed a sum of Rupees 937-2-0 as rewards for killing snakes, and charged the same in his Treasury Account for that month. This the Board of Revenue have taken objection to, and, as I also consider the expenditure to be unusually large for the destruction of snakes alone, I have thought it proper to bring the same to the special notice of Government for such orders as may be deemed necessary.
