ORDER THEREON, 13th January 1875, No. 67.

Miscellaneous.

On a reconsideration of these papers, the Governor in Council is unwilling that Stri Baliah should not, on the present occasion, have the benefit of the recommendation made in his favor by the Board of Revenue in their Proceedings, dated 9th July last, No. 4,568, Miscellaneous; and he is pleased, therefore, to authorise the payment to that officer of an honorarium of Rs. 500 in recognition of the good work performed in the settlement of the Cheekady Jaghire.

2. His Excellency, however, wishes the Board to understand that claims of this nature cannot, in future, be entertained. Expectations of special reward for work performed in course of duty must be discouraged.
