Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
14th January 1875.

No. 158 Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue
December 1874, Miscellaneous No. 8,928:—

Read the following letter from G. D. LEMAN, Esq. Collector of the Kistna District, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Masulipatam, 16th November 1874, No. 17:—

With the view of verifying the entries in the Service Registers of the several establishments under my control, I have caused Audit Registers to be prepared from 1865. The records of the previous years having been destroyed in the cyclone of 1864, I requested the Accountant-General to let me have copies of the Audit Registers maintained in his Office. He, in reply, states that the transcription of them from 1850 to 1864 will require the services of two Copyists, at 25 Rupees each, and one Moochee, at 6 Rupees, for six months, and an Examiner for one month, at 50 Rs., costing in the aggregate Rs. 386.

2. I have the honor to forward copy of his communication, and to request the Board will be good enough to obtain sanction of Government for the entertainment of the temporary establishment in the Accountant-General's Office.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.
