OFFICE OF SURGEON-GENERAL, I. M. D.,
Fort Saint George, 13 April 1875.

From

SURGEON-GENERAL EDWARD BALFOUR,
Surgeon-General,
Indian Medical Department,
Fort Saint George,

To

The Secretary to Government
Revenue Department.
Fort Saint George.

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of the Proceedings of Government of 12th January and 8th April 1875, and to mention that there has not been received into my Office, any letter from any one on the subject of sun-flower cultivation as a prophylactic against fever. I have not amongst my own Manuscripts papers any note to that effect. I have not made any allusion to such a subject in the Cyclopaedia of India. I remember having seen mention made that sun-flower cultivation acts as a prophylactic against fever, but I am not able to lay my hands upon it.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obedient servant,

Edward Balfour Surgeon-General
Indian Medical Dept.
