No. 167. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 18th December 1874, No. 3,670, Forest No. 245:—

Read the following letter from A. MACGREGOR, Esq., Collector of Malabar, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Calicut, 3rd November 1874, No. 255:—

I HAVE the honor to request, under the following circumstances, that sanction may be granted for the inclusion of the marginally noted expenditure in the Contingent Bill of the Wynaad Range.

	Rs.	A.	P.
For 11 coats, inclusive of all expense	84	9	7
,, 11 cumblies	14	0	0
,, 1 chair or bench	9	0	0

2. The charge on account of coats and cumblies for the Peons and Duffadar of the Wynaad Forests was incurred by Mr. Peet, under the impression that G. O., No. 2,768 of the 3rd November 1868, conveyed a general sanction for incurring the like expenditure annually.

3. As regards the amount of Rupees 9, spent in the purchase of a chair and bench, these appear, from Mr. Peet's letter, to have been allowed to the Office of the Assistant Overseer attached to the Wynaad Timber Depôt at Mysore, and is shown as an outstanding debt since the time when Colonel Morgan had charge of the Range. They were ordered for the Wynaad Office at the same time and under the same covering preliminary sanction as the furniture ordered for the Mudumalai Office.

IN the foregoing letter the Collector states that the Deputy Conservator has incurred an expenditure of Rupees 98-9-7 in purchasing coats and cumblies for the Duffadar and Peons employed in the Wynaad Forests, under the impression that G. O., dated 3rd November 1868, No. 2,768, conveyed a general sanction for similar outlay. It is observed that the Conservator informed Government that charges of this nature would be incurred annually, but Government accorded sanction only for the single outlay then reported. The Board resolve to recommend Government to sanction the expenditure already incurred and to authorize them to pass similar outlay in future.

2. The cost (Rupees 9) of the chair and bench appears to have been met from funds allowed for "Working Charges," the Collector will, therefore, be requested to submit a supplemental bill for those articles in adjustment of the outstanding advances.
