Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
27th May 1875.

No. 314 Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 13th May 1875, No. 1,263 .—

Read the following letter from G. D. LEMAN, Esq., Collector of the Kistna District, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Masulipatam, 3rd April 1875, No. 495.

REFERRING to paragraph 6 of Proceedings, No. 3,092, dated 24th October 1874, I have the honor to submit a statement showing the names of persons who are specially reported to have relieved the poor and houseless during the floods of September last.

2. They, none of them, desire to be reimbursed for their charity.

3. The list does not include anything like all the cases that occurred, for almost every man did what he could according to his ability and the necessities of his neighbours.

4. Mallela Kondayya's name (No. 1 in the list) has already been brought to notice.

5. Kalakonda Narasayya Garu (No. 4) made himself equally conspicuous by his charities on the other side of the river. Moreover, he converted his house into a sort of Lying-in-Hospital, and gave shelter and other help to seven women in labor. This was very praiseworthy.

6. Some weavers of Bhattiprole in the Repalli Taluq supplied rice, &c., to the flood-stricken people round about, and the ex-Zemindar of Repalli was very energetic in giving assistance to the Tahsildar at that place to save the people from the water in the first place, and then from starvation.
