INDIA OFFICE, LONDON,

SIR,—The letter of the Acting Secretary to your Excellency's Government, dated 26th February, No. 13, of 1875, transmitting the report of Mr. Thornhill, the Senior Member of the Board of Revenue, on the case of Iyahsawmy Moodelliar, who had previously addressed a Memorial to me, has been considered by me in Council.

I approve, therefore, of the proceedings of your Excellency in Council, and shall not interfere in the Memorialist's favor.
