PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 28th May 1875.

Read the following letter from W. D. HORSLEY, Esq., Collector of Cuddapah, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 4th May 1875, No. 95 :—

With reference to Board's Miscellaneous Proceedings, No. 2,911, dated 14th April 1875, my reasons for prohibiting the employment of Brahmins as process-servers are as follow :—

- (1.) Brahmins are, as a rule, not physically fit for such work.
- (2.) Their caste-rules forbid them performing their duties properly, as they cannot serve notices on, and attach the property of, pariahs.
- (3.) Brahmins who will undertake process-servers' duties are not a good class of men. They are generally the private servants, or needy and illiterate relatives, of the taluq officials and of curmams. Such Brahmins, by taking process-servers' posts, hope to get employment in the taluq offices, and it is not advisable that such men should be so employed.

2. On taking charge of the Cuddapah and Pulivendla Taluqs from the Additional Deputy Collector, I found that nearly all the process-servers were Brahmins. In Pulivendla Taluq, out of six men employed five are Brahmins. Of the Brahmins, three are relatives of curmams in the taluq, one is the late Tahsildar's waterman, and one is the late Tahsildar's head servant or butler. In the Cuddapah Taluq there are fourteen process-servers, of whom eleven are Brahmins. Seven of the Brahmins are either cooks or watermen, or needy relatives, of the Tahsildar, of his gamastas, and of the divisional officer's clerks. The remaining four Brahmins are relatives or dependents of vakils.

3. Brahmin process-servers are outcherry hangers-on and go-betweens. My order in the District Gazette got rid of these objectionable men. The Government directed the cancellation of my order, and I have been obliged to replace the Brahmins in office.

SUBMITTED to Government with reference to G. O., dated 7th April 1875, No. 553, Revenue Department.

2. The general exclusion of any caste or class from public employment was clearly invidious and wrong, but in case of any manifest abuse of patronage of the nature adverted to, the Collector's proper course was to warn the officers concerned that such misconduct would meet with serious notice, and it was open to him to secure a fair representation of the several cases by directing that the number of posts to be conferred on members of any particular caste should not exceed a certain proportion of the establishment.

4. The Notification was clearly objectionable, but the Board do not think it was the intention of Government that, under the circumstances represented, all the Brahmins should be restored to office.
