Ag Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Madras

SIR,

I have the honor to submit copy of Letter N^o 108 dated 31st March 1875 from the Sub Collector and to request the Board permission to nominate another Acting Tasildar of Palay Taluq.

2. When the Tasildarship became vacant applications were called for from all parts of the country and Muttusamy Pillai was nominated in consequence of the opinion expressed of him by other people. The appointment was was soon found to be a mistake as Muthusamy Pillai has not sufficient intelligence to do a Tasildar's work and govern his subordinates though he may have done well in his former office on the Nilgiri Hills where his duties were very different.

8th April 1875
