Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 26th June 1875.

No. 227. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 12th June 1875, Miscellaneous No. 5,252:—

Read the following letter from W. H. COMYN, Esq., Acting Collector of Tinnevelly, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 28th May 1875, No. 275.

With reference to Board's Proceedings, 10th April 1875, No. 381, I have the honor to report that the Assistant Collector Mr. J. W. Bird has consented to complete the compilation of the Manual of this district, which was commenced by his brother, the late Mr. G. E. Bird.

2. I have ascertained that the papers connected with the Manual are in the custody of the District Judge of Coimbatore, Mr. Bird having taken them with him on his transfer to that district. They will have to be sent to the Administrator-General to whom I have written requesting that they may be returned to me as soon as possible.

3. I am not in a position to say how much progress was made by the late Mr. Bird in the work, but I doubt whether the Manual will be ready by the end of 1876.

4. As Mr. J. W. Bird has to pass his standard examinations, he will not be able to undertake the preparation of the Manual at once, but materials can be collected which, added to those already at hand, will enable him to set to work in earnest, as soon as he has the leisure requisite for the task.

5. I am unable to make any other arrangement.

SUBMITTED to Government for orders, with reference to G. O., 13th March 1875, No. 412.

2. In the circumstances, the Board consider that the compilation of the Manual may be entrusted to Mr. J. W. Bird.
