No. 46. Read the following letter from A. MACGREGOR, Esq., Resident in Travancore and Cochin, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Trevandrum, 24th July 1876, No. 54 :—

In acknowledging the receipt of G.O., No. 764, dated 9th June 1876, I have the honor to explain that the estimate of the Dewan of Travancore, viz., Rs. 3,72,000, included only the refund of duty on salt landed up to the middle of February, or as the Dewan puts it in letter printed with G.O., No. 286, dated 25th February 1876, for present purposes; and the payments made for the subsequent period between the middle of February and the end of March represent the excess over that estimate.

2. In explanation of the expenditure being met from sources other than the Subsidy, I beg to note in the margin an abstract of the transactions of my treasury from January to April last, from which it will be seen that the treasury balance on 1st January was Rs. 71,400, that the receipts of the month, including Currency Notes received, amounted to Rs. 1,57,000, or a total of Rs. 2,28,400; deducting the expenditure of the month, Rs. 1,25,200 (one lakh of which was paid on account of interest on Government securities held by the Travancore Sirkar), there was a balance of Rs. 1,03,200 at the end of January. In the Dewan Peishcar's letter recorded in G.O., dated 1st February 1876, that officer brought to notice that besides the payment of Rs. 44,845 received from my treasury in December on account of salt-duty there remained a further sum of Rs. two lakhs due in that month, and urged for immediate payment, as the Sirkar was under pressure for funds. In the G.O. above quoted, Government sanctioned the refund of duty up to the end of January, which amounted to Rs. 3¼ lakhs, including the two lakhs mentioned above. It will be observed that this amount could not be met by the then existing balance in my treasury, and I was therefore obliged to apply to the Accountant-General for Rs. three lakhs, which were remitted from the Tinnevelly treasury.
