Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 21st August 1876.

No. 225. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 14th August 1876, Miscellaneous No. 6,916 :—

Read the following letter from H. W. BLISS, Esq., Acting Collector of Madura, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 24th July 1876, No. 270.

REFERRING to paragraph 2 of G.O., dated 15th July 1876, No. 947, Revenue Department, communicated with the Board's Proceedings, Miscellaneous No. 6,123, dated 19th idem, I have the honor to point out that it still remains to be settled how much of Mr. Turner's pay should be paid by Government and how much by the Ramnad Zemindar. It is obviously unfair that the Ramnad Zemindar should be charged with the whole of his pay, while he is also acting as Head Assistant Collector and Magistrate; and I cannot think that the estate should, during this period, pay any pensionary contribution on his behalf. I would suggest, as an equitable arrangement, that his pay should be divided between Government and the Zemindari, and that the claim to pensionary contribution should be foregone.

2. I may add that Government is under a misapprehension in supposing that there is no magisterial work, the performance of which would be incompatible with Mr. Turner's position as Manager of the Ramnad Estate. Unfortunately, there are several cases of embezzlement which must be brought on for hearing without delay in which he is prosecutor, and in some of which he is also a witness. I will transfer these to the Salt Deputy Collector. This is against the rules, but, under the circumstances, I have no option.

No. 226. ORDER THEREON, 21st August 1876, No. 1,144.

Miscellaneous.

Mr. TURNER resides in the Zamin-dary and manages its administration; and the employment of his spare time in magisterial duties, as a temporary measure, affords no sufficient ground for any re-adjustments of his salary, as suggested by the Acting Collector.

2. Those magisterial cases in which Mr. Turner is prosecutor are rightly transferred to the Salt Deputy, who, it is presumed, has the powers of a Magistrate, though seldom called upon to act as such.
