the registration and compilation of the statistics of the sea-borne trade under the improved system prescribed by the Government of India.

2. These proposals involve a permanent increase of establishment in the Office of the Board of Revenue of Rs. 6,004 per annum, and in the District Collectorates of Rs. 5,340 per annum.

3. Of the total increase proposed in the Office of the Board a sum of Rs. 3,864 per annum has, with the sanction of the Government of Madras, been spent on additional establishments employed since October 1875. The entertainment of the additional establishments in the various Collectors' Offices and in two of the ports has also been permitted by the Government of Madras, in anticipation of the sanction of the Government of India, at a cost of Rs. 5,340 per annum.

4. The Governor-General in Council is pleased to confirm the sanction of the Government of Madras to the entertainment of the above establishments and to their continued employment, as a temporary measure, until the end of the current financial year, when the proposals which have been made for the entertainment of permanent establishments will be considered by the Government of India after review of the work done at each port and in each district office.
