Irrigation No. 4.

PARAGRAPH 2 refers to the suggestion of the Board that additional powers should be conferred on Magistrates to meet cases in which their interference is necessary, notwithstanding the absence of present imminent danger. The necessity for such powers will be obviated in the case of the Jellalamadagu Tank by the adoption of the measures contemplated in Public Works G.O., 6th July 1876, No. 1,723, and Revenue G.O., 18th July 1876, No. 965. The Government will wait till actual necessity arises for acting on the Board's suggestion.
