GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

MADRAS RECORD OFFICE

Miscellaneous No 4166

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

Dated 20 May 1876

Read the following

No 102

From H. Logan Esquire
Collector of Malabar

To C. A. Galton Esquire
Ag Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Madras

Sir, I have the honor to submit for the Board's favorable consideration the case of an old public servant whom I have lately appointed as acting Sheristadar of the Cherakal Taluq and whose exceptional circumstances call for the relaxation of the examination Rules in his favor.

2. M. Chandu, the Ag: Sheristadar alluded to above is a servant of more than 21 years standing of which for 10 years he has been the Head Clerk of the Cherakal Taluq Office office. In consideration of his long service and experience he would have long ere this been raised to a better position, had he passed the requisite tests, which unfortunately for himself he has failed to do.

A man of more than 40 years who has to attend for eight hours of the day to his office work, and has the cares of a large family upon his shoulders, can hardly be expected to be able to find time for study.

3. While Sub Collector I had long experience of Chandu's work and formed him to be a man of excellent business habits and feel perfectly confident that he is fit for the post to which I have promoted him.

4. On the score of his long and good service and practical revenue experience, I am strongly inclined to support Mr Buick's recommendation to exempt Chandu from the Special Test

Examination for the post of the Deputy Sheristadar and 3rd Class Magistrate and I trust that the Board and Government will be pleased to accord the exemption sought for.

No. 2077.

I cannot see reason for the exemption applied for. The rules are to be enforced by the Board of Trade. Inst. Bd of Rev.

Dated 20 May 1876

FOR ORDERS.

Petr exempted from Examination. Mr Logan is a very competent Engineer & has been the Chief man at work for 27/5

See no sort of grounds for exemption. The case is not exceptional & Petitioner should be examined. Reasons for granting a diligent man's Certificate on Open Competition. But there are no public grounds for setting aside the Rules
