No. 202. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 7th September 1876, No. 2,287 :—

Read the following letter from W. LOGAN, Esq., Collector of Malabar, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Calicut, 26th August 1876, No. 231.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the orders of the Board, a case in which a Nair female named Eramkumarath Parvathi, an inhabitant of Palayur Amshom, Ponani former, a very small piece, is left waste, and is not practically in the possession of any, while the latter are held by one K. Meledath Ramotti Panikar, having been mortgaged to him ten years ago by the deceased and her brother for Rupees 500 at twelve per cent. per annum payable from the produce of the property mortgaged and also in cash if that be insufficient. The accumulated interest (Rupees 200) on the mortgage debt has swelled it into Rupees 700.

2. The wet land and one of the parambas, which are the deceased's Jenm property, are valued at Rupees 1,000, and the other paramba held by her on Kanom are Rupees 100, or Rupees 1,100 in all. Deducting from this sum the liability of the deceased above alluded to, the net asset left to Government to be dealt with as escheat will be Rupees 400. The deceased's house, which was built of mud, is now in ruins.

3. It would appear that the deceased, while on her death-bed, had no one specially to take care of her, and had to depend for her nurture upon her neighbours. It was one Achucotti, a man of the Vannian caste, who, of his own accord, gave the deceased's corpse a decent burial, and for this service he is recommended for a reward of Rs. 3.

4. The mortgagee who, as above stated, is in possession of a portion of the estate, is unwilling to purchase it, and has agreed to give it up upon payment of his claim.

5. It appears that landed property is dear in the locality, and the estate on sale is likely to realize more than what is now anticipated.

6. The Head Assistant Collector is of opinion that the property of the deceased should be disposed of as escheat, and, concurring with him, I have the honor to request sanction to assume charge of, and deal with, it accordingly.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government with the Board's recommendation that the deceased's property be dealt with as an escheat, and that the small reward proposed in paragraph 3 be sanctioned.
