Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 26th September 1876.

No. 286. Read the following letter from R. W. LODWICK, Esq., Accountant-General, Madras, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Ootacamund, dated Fort St. George, 19th September 1876, No. 368 :—

I HAVE the honor to inquire whether the allowance of Rs. 75 for being in charge of Revenue Survey Party, Ganjam, sanctioned, as per orders noted in the margin, to Mr. Gompertz and others, but which has been in abeyance since 1870 in consequence of the officers holding the post subsequent to that date being in receipt of the higher rate of pay, is to be given now to Mr. Merriman who draws the lower rate, or Rs. 425 a-month.

No. 287. ORDER THEREON, 26th September 1876, No. 1,345.

Miscellaneous.

THE special allowance to the Assistant in charge of the party in Ganjam was proposed and sanctioned in pursuance of the observation of the Government of India in their Resolution of 7th October 1865, No. 2,752, that "if any of the Civil officers are particularly deserving of the increase of salary, it may be specially recommended in their favor." It must be noted that in this Resolution the Government of India negatived the proposal to grant consolidated salaries to the officers of the Survey Department; but to prevent hardship in individual cases, the special concession above referred to was promised. This Resolution, however, has been superseded by the subsequent one of 1873 (vide G.O., 18th January 1873, No. 63), by which consolidated salaries were sanctioned as first proposed in 1865. Under these circumstances, the special allowance sanctioned on the basis of the old Resolution should be considered to have lapsed under the later Resolution. The Superintendent of Revenue Survey should arrange to place the Ganjam party in charge of a First Assistant Superintendent if an officer of a higher grade is not available for the duty.
