note by His Grace on Draft Order
on Per paper No 2201

When a young man is put into a post - to which he has no claim from demerit or merit - temporarily, just to fill up the gap till the proper man can be found - it is not usual to say to him formally as the acting incumbent, but to give him, on his return to his own duty, as having acted for such & such a period.

The reason is that when a man is said to be acting, it means that he has been selected as the most deserving & has a claim to remain in the post & to succeed to the permanent vacancy on its occurrence.

The first procedure implies that the selection is a makeshift - the second that it is deliberate. - 4.8.6. 12/6/6.
