No. 220. ORDER THEREON, 18th October 1876, No. 1,502.

Miscellaneous.

The resumption of the Inam is sanctioned. The Government observe that but for the inquiries made by them in G.Os., 20th September 1875, No. 1,384, and 4th April 1876, No. 469, this Inam would have been exchanged for valuable land as originally proposed. The Collector should be called on to explain why the facts of the case had not been fully investigated when the first report was made. Care should be enjoined on Collectors in regard to submitting similar proposals by a Circular Order.
