Received Statement of 12th January 1876

To
The Secy of the Admiralty
The Secretary to the Admiralty
Admiralty
Navy Department
Port of London

I have the honor to represent that 1/2 copies of various papers by former and will refer to the documents for sale, which will be for sale, and generally to be decided, but for 1876 apparently only 12 copies have been supplied.
The same number as in respect to various matters was communicated to the Department, & 12 copies of various matters were sent connected with either the organization of the Department, or as to the revision of the appointment of District under secretaries, do not suffice for the wants of the Department. I am to request that 25 Copies of these papers, instead of 100, may be ordered to be furnished. Spare copies are now and again wanted to supply up files, but as to years late years none exist.

I have a list of papers no longer available, and I am to request that if any spare copies exist in the Government Office, they be placed with an additional 12 Copies, or many as may be available.

I have the honor to be Sir

Your most obt. Servant

Wm. B. Ewing

For Secretary of the Treasury
