PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter proceedings of Government Revenue Dept. dated 5 January 1876 N. 12.

Order thereon 15 January 1876 N. 73

It is observed from para 79 of the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, recorded in the foregoing Proceedings of Government, that the Inspector General of Police, and not the Accountant General, furnished the Board of Revenue with an estimate of the cost of the Police guards required for the Revenue Department for 1876-77 amounting to Rupees 372,677-

2. The Budget for the Police Force was reviewed and passed in Financial Department order dated 27th December 1875 N. 2503, and it is presumed that the requisite

Not to be folded or roughly handled requisite provision was made in it for the Police guards adverted to. The Inspector General of Police will state whether this presumption is correct.
