Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 30th October 1876.

No. 279. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 27th October 1876, Miscellaneous No. 9,273:—

Read the following letter from J. H. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Bellary, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 26th October 1876, No. 397.

MR. CROSTHWAITE has held the office of Acting Sub-Collector in this district for more than four years, and during that period has, of course, become intimately acquainted with his division.

2. I learn that Mr. Snaith, the permanent incumbent, is about to join his appointment. In the natural course of things this officer would obtain acting promotion in a few months; at all events, his stay would not probably be long.

3. At a crisis like the present, when widespread distress is prevailing, I would earnestly beg the Board to recommend to the Government to allow the divisional officers (for Mr. Ross, Acting Head Assistant Collector, would revert too) to remain in their places. I beg to submit my opinion that a change at the present moment would be, to say the least, impolitic.

4. An additional Sub-Collector has been appointed to the district, but I see it is Mr. Price, not Mr. Snaith.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

(A true Copy and Extract.)

(Signed) H. E. STOKES,
Acting Secretary.

No. 280. ORDER THEREON, 30th October 1876, No. 1,531.

Miscellaneous.

ARRANGEMENTS cannot be made of the exact kind suggested by the Collector; but it will be open to him, in communication with Mr. Thornhill, to allocate the several officers of his district staff where their respective services may be most useful during the present emergency:—reporting what he does under these instructions.

2. The Government are confident that all officers concerned will cheerfully accept any temporary arrangements that may be so made.

Signed) D. F. CARMICHAEL,
Secretary to Government.

To The Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Madras

Sir Mr. Smith has held the office of Dy Sub Collector in this District for more than four years and during that period has
of course become intimately acquainted with his division

2 I learn that Mr. Smith, the permanent incumbent is about to join his appointment. In the natural course of things this officer would obtain Acting promotion in a few months; at all events his stay would not probably be long.

3 At a crisis like the present, when wide spread distress is prevailing I would earnestly beg the Board to recommend to the Government to allow the Divisional Officers, (for Mr. Ross Acting Head Assistant Collector would revert too) to remain in their places; I beg to submit my opinion that a change at the present moment would be,
to say the least, a pity.

4. An additional Sub Collector
has been appointed to the District,
but I see it is Mr Price, not Mr Smith.
