3. The travelling allowance of a Head Assistant Collector is Rs. 4.

4. Mr. Thornhill has also given him permission to appoint a Gumastah on Rs. 15 and two Peons of Rs. 7 each.

My dear Sirs,

I was at Royacholi yesterday where I met Karam & Chetti & joined Fribble here this morning. There seems to have been a certain amount of Cross-purpose about Mr Swan. Karam had agreed to give him & had released him of Police work, where he got the Board's Proceeding & so refusing him. He told me however that if, after seeing Fribble, I still wished for Swan's services he would take on himself to give him. I have seen Fribble & have decided to keep Mr Swan as he has worked for in several directions & wants assistance very much. I hope therefore the Board will accept his recommendation which will reach them through Darius on this point. I have agreed in anticipation of Board's order to sanction, to pay Mr Swan's salary Rs 215. out of Relief Funds & to give him from his same source an allowance of 5Rs a day, salary as he is employed Relief duty - 5Rs a day is perhaps high, but as I have recommended it & as it will cover everything in his way of travelling allowance, I agreed. Mr Swan is an intelligent young man & talks Telugu remarkably well & his salary will be more than paid in efficiency of work & se-curity from mal-practices he can be dispensed with at any time. I told him he was to keep him as long as his necessity for work continued & then send him back to police work. The late rain had no appreciable effect beyond providing a little water for drinking & giving a little starch to his growing fodder for cattle. I will write more of the state of the division in a day or two. I have seen enough to know that employment is wanted in several di-rections directions & as the division is very large & has only one officer, an Assistant is quite requisite. If distress continues Mr Swan should be regarded as a special dispensation! but it is not necessary to do so yet. I cannot yet make out if much rain is really coming into the country & what is the state of the stocks. They have had two bad seasons and the country is poor & there are no large markets - but prices are very even with Cuddapah & I do not doubt the supply will be equal to the demand.

 Yours sincerely
