and I have also appointed* R. Govinda Row, Acting Translator of this Office, who has passed the requisite tests, to be the Sheristadar, and requests sanction for this also.

2. As the Additional Sub-Collector will, for the present, be in the headquarters supervising the relief works going on in the Bellary Taluq, with an enormous number of coolies as reported in my letter, No. 410, dated 2nd November 1876, it is necessary that that officer should have three peons in addition to the three belonging to the Assistant Collector's Office, who are available. I have appointed them pending the sanction of the Board. I beg you will be pleased to obtain it.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government. The appointment of a Sheristadar for the temporary office appears scarcely necessary.
