ADVERTING to G.O., No. 1,305, dated 20th September 1876, I have the honor to inform you that on a reference I learn that no permission to shoot elephants was granted to Dr. Tobin by the Cochin Government, or even applied for by him. Mr. Douglas, therefore, has been misinformed on this point.

2. The shooting of elephants in Cochin, without permit, is a penal offence, punishable with three months' imprisonment or Rs. 50 fine, or both.

3. I have already, in my letter of 23rd September 1876, No. 75, made proposals for the early settlement of the boundary dispute which gives rise to this question of jurisdiction, and Government have approved of them and issued orders for giving effect to them.

4. Nothing further seems possible at present.
