November 1872, when that post was abolished consequent on the reduction of the District Post Establishment in that year. He was subsequently on the 3rd February 1873, re-employed as - acting Vernacular Clerk on Rs. 15 and later on the 21st September 1873, as English Accountant (permanently).

On the 21st September 1875, he was put to act as Huzar Cash Gumashta, the pay of which was equal to his former abolished post, viz Rs. 20. and he held that appointment up to 31st December 1875.

The Accountant General, however, objected to the payment of Acting allowance to the individual on the ground that Ragoonna Puntulu is "neither a passed candidate, nor one in

4/1036
"continuous Government employ from 1st January 1859" and that "his appointment cannot be recognized by this (his) Office without a special exemption."

It is true Ragoonna Puntulu is not passed Candidate nor one in continuous employ, ^{from} 1st January 1859, but as he was on receipt of a salary of Rs. 20 at the time he was thrown out of employment and as the intermediate break thus caused was owing to a reduction of Establishment effected by Government and not attributable to any fault of his own, it is ^{but} reasonable that he should not be precluded from holding a post on that salary, viz Rs. 20. after his re-employment.

I

I, therefore, solicit, under the circumstances above represented, that the Board will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government to the appointment of Ragunna Pantulu to a post-the pay of which is equal to the pay which he used to draw before the reduction of the District Post-Establishment in 1872 (viz Rs 20) and also to have the Accountant-General's objections removed to enable G. Ragunna Pantulu to draw the Acting allowance due to him for the time he acted as Cash Kumashlu on Rs 20 and which has been re-trenched by the Accountant-General.
