Sir,

I have the honor to forward, for your perusal, two letters, one from Mysore Ramachandrarit-
-ant Superintendent in charge of Balacherroo, and the other from A. Venkaiyar Row, 2nd Clerk of my office, requesting to be exempted from passing the General

Test, which is usually required from Candidates not in the Service prior to 1859, before being allowed to present themselves for any of the Special Tests.

2. Mr. Ramsay Rowntree entered the Government Service in 1862, as Peishkar on a Salary of Rupees 15 and held this post upto 1864, when he was appointed Assistant Superintendent on Rupees 30 per mensem, on condition of passing the General Test, on the introduction of the new Establishment at Kanara Salt works; and subsequently on the recommendation of the then Collector Mr. Commichael, the Government in their order, dated 11th June 1864 at p. 693, sanctioned as a special case, the employment of this individual as Assistant Superintendent of Kanara, on Rupees 30 without passing the General Test. This appointment was abolished in September 1866 in consequence of which he had to take up an appointment of a Clerk on Rupees 15 at Bimlipatam. In October 1867 he was promoted to the grade of Assistant Superintendent on a Salary of Rupees 20.

Mr. Plunkett the late Salt Deputy Collector in appointing

him to this post remarked as follows:—

"He has considerable experience in the Salt Department and he will, I hope, prove himself fit for the post of Superintendent."

I need hardly say that for the past five years, A. Rama Row who was in sole charge and had worked the largest Salt Station in the District, single handed, had certainly proved himself a most efficient and fit subject for the post of a Superintendent; and the late Salt Deputy Collector Mahomed Ali Sahib in his report dated 19th November 1873 No: 261 had fully endorsed this opinion.

If the object of the electing Government to secure that person, entering the public Service, have a fair amount of General knowledge, I presume, the proof of a person in the possession of Rama Row, already in one branch of the Public Service possessing sufficient education to enable him to discharge the various duties of a Salt Superintendent with that intelligence and ability which have secured the high opinion and

Con-

Confidence of his immediate departmental Superiors, ought,
I think, to be a sufficient rea-son that the object of the Gene-ral test has, in his case, more or less been attained; which would be sufficient to exempt him from passing the General Test, so as to enable him to appear for the Special Exa-mination Test for the Office of Sub Superintendent in Telegu Lan-guage, which he is fully pre-pared to pass. To prepare for the General Test he has (from the nature of his duties) no time to study and must necessarily hinder him in ever passing the Sub Test, which alone

alone can secure him, the pro-motion he so well deserves and which unfortunately has been so long withheld from him.

Proficiency in the sub-jects required for the General Test may be useful to the ex Proficient; Knowledge of those required for the Special is,
-cial appointments for which they are prescribed, essential.

What Rama Rowdo
-ji, has to my knowledge, been granted to individuals not in any branch of the Service and to others again holding minor appointments as clerks &c and when this is so, I trust that the grant may be extended to him. He is already in the service and has been ascertained to be an efficient subordinate in the Salt Department.

2. As regards my 2nd Clerk Nandagiri Varaha Narasinga Row, the testimonials of the several High Officials granted to him speak for themselves, and from my observance of him during my incumbency, I consider him a most exempt, intelligent and subordinate Gentleman in my Department, has 12 years good Government Service, and belongs to a respectable family

Under these circumstances I request that you will be pleased to ask the Government to exempt these two individuals from the operation of the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination rules and to allow them to appear for the Salt Test prescribed for the Office of the Salt Superintendent.

I have &c
