To H. S. Thomas Esq.

Sir,

As the term of my appointment to this district is likely to come to a close by the end of the next month, and I was sent out to different districts during the last three years on special duties in which I had to work very hard, I wish to take some rest before I join my permanent appointment in the Madura District.

2 I beg therefore that you will be good enough to submit this (my application) to the favourable consideration of Government and obtain for me 3 months' cumulative privilege leave from or after 1st August 1876 under Section 12 Supplement II of the Civil Leave Code.
