With reference to G. O., dated 17th March 1874, No. 110, Collectors were called upon to report as to the accounts in which fractions of an anna may be omitted. The letters read above are the replies.

2. The opinions of the Collectors vary. Some Collectors think that it is not desirable to omit the fractions in any of the accounts in which they are now inserted, while others consider that they may be omitted with advantage in certain accounts named by them.

3. The Board are of opinion that in none of the accounts kept in the districts should fractions of a rupee or an anna be omitted. The omission is likely to cause more confusion than convenience. As regards the returns received by the Board from the districts, fractions of even a rupee are omitted in several of them. The annas and pies
