Proceedings of Madras Government, Revenue Department,

dated 16th November 1876.

No. 283 Read the following telegram from Collector of Nellore, to Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated 13th November 1876.

Presume not commence canal works on large scale for fortnight. Can supply locally for ten thousand people, and more gradually. If desired commence forming grain reserves immediately and sending contracts. If failure by Thursday can telegraph Government supplies. Deprecate canal as large relief work being remote from much distressed population, ports accessible one side only, inaccessible if rivers in flood and large. Government raising prices in limited market inaccessible by rail or sea in monsoon.

No 284. ORDER THEREON, dated 16th November 1876, No. 1,700.

Miscellaneous.

ORDERED that the following telegram be despatched to the Collector of Nellore:—

"Canal relief work intended draw distressed population from Bellary and Kurnool. Government contracting with Arbuthnot and Co. to throw in grain by sea and land. Will not depend on your local supplies. Telegraph if good rain reaches you."
