Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 21st November 1876.

Read the following:—

No. 353. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 9th November 1876, Miscellaneous No. 9,674.

Read the following letter from T. J. MALTBY, Esq., Acting Head Assistant Collector, on Special Duty, to the Collector of Ganjam, dated Berhampore, 24th September 1876.

WITH reference to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 11th September 1876, No. 7,745, Miscellaneous, I have the honor to inform you that I took charge of the office of Head Assistant Collector in the Godavery District from Mr. Hope, the Collector, on the 11th May 1876 at Cocanada, and that I am, therefore, at a loss to understand how, under these circumstances, I cannot count Ellore as my headquarters de jure, although not de facto. I must, of course, bow to the Board of Revenue's decision in the matter; but I beg to state that I have been put to considerable expense, inconvenience, and trouble, by being sent first to the Godavery District, and then back again to Ganjam under the orders of Government. I am now, for a second time, on my way back to the Godavery, and I therefore trust that the Board of Revenue will be pleased to recommend my case for the favorable consideration of Government, in order that I may be permitted to receive such a reasonable allowance as is usually made to officers employed upon special duty under the orders of the Madras Government.

No. 3,362.

SUBMITTED for the consideration of the Board of Revenue with reference to their Proceedings, dated 11th September 1876, Miscellaneous No. 7,745.

2. It will be observed that Mr. Maltby did join his appointment of Head Assistant Collector, Godavery, at Cocanada, though not at Ellore, and had then to return to Ganjam.

BERHAMPORE,
7th October 1876.

(Signed) P. W. MOORE,
Assistant for Collector.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government. Mr. Maltby having been employed upon special duty under the orders of Government, the Board do not consider themselves competent to determine what allowances he should draw.

Acting Sub-Secretary.

REFERRED for opinion of Accountant-General, with copies of G.O., 10th June 1876, No. 777, and G.O., 20th September 1876, No. 1,302.

2. The point is whether Mr. Maltby, while at Chetterpore on the special duty of compiling the Ganjam District Manual, was entitled to extra tentage, as being absent from his headquarters. N.B.—his post was that of Acting Head Assistant in the Godáviri District. He never actually joined Ellore, but had taken charge of the office from the Collector at Cocanada, when the Government ordered him to proceed on the special duty aforesaid.

No. 354. Memorandum from the Accountant-General, Madras, to the H
D. F. CARMICHAEL, Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated 15th November 1876, No. 521.

The undersigned has the honor to report that Mr. Maltby appears not to be entitled to extra tentage, even though away from his headquarters, that allowance being granted to Head Assistants only when actually performing the duties of the office. Mr. Maltby being on special duty, and therefore not performing the duties of Head Assistant, and having, moreover, to receive travelling allowance both for going to and coming from Ganjam, seems to have no claim to the allowance.

(Signed) R. W. LODWICK,
Accountant-General.

No. 355. ORDER THEREON, 21st November 1876, No. 1,737.

Miscellaneous.

The Government are of opinion that Mr. Maltby is not entitled to "extra tentage" while engaged at Chetterpore in the compilation of the Ganjam District:—but not for the reason assigned by the Accountant-General, viz., that he was not then actually performing the duties of his office as Acting Head Assistant to the Collector of Godáviri. If he was not at Ellore, it was because his services were specially required in Ganjam. The proper ground for the rejection of the claim is that, never having joined Ellore, he was not put to the trouble, expense, and inconvenience of maintaining a double establishment, residential and camp.

No. 109.

Dated 10th June 1876, No. 777.

Miscellaneous.

G.O., 10th February 1876.

WITH reference to the urgency of the request preferred by the Director-General of Statistics, for the early completion of the District Manuals of this Presidency, and especially of all districts as far as the letter J inclusive—the Governor in Council resolves to depute Mr. T. J. Maltby, Acting Head Assistant, Godavari, who has already collected considerable materials for the Manual of Ganjam, to continue this employment in that district; for which purpose a further period of three months is assigned to him.

Extra Verge.—Informing the Board of Revenue that Mr. Maltby is not entitled to — while engaged at Chettopore in the compilation of the Ganjam District Manual on the ground urged by the Accountant-General, but on the ground that he never having joined Illore he was not put to the expense of maintaining a double establishment.

September 1876, Miscellaneous No. 1,745.

Read the following letter from C. G. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Ganjam, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chatterpore, 15th August 1876, No. 2,671.

With reference to G.O., dated 10th June last,

Chatterpore, 15th August 1876, No. 2,071.

I HAVE the honor to inquire, with reference to G.O., dated 10th June last, No. 777, whether Mr. Maltby is to receive extra tentage for the whole period he remains in this district on special duty without reference to the limit of fourteen days.

2. Mr. Maltby sends for payment bills for extra tentage from 21st June to 31st July (i.e., for forty-one days), amounting to Rs. 164 at Rs. 4 per diem. I presume that the demand is made because he is absent on duty from his own headquarters at Ellore.

2. So long as he remains at Chettpore, that station must be held to be his headquarters, and he cannot draw extra tentage there without a special order of Government.

(Signed) E. GIBSON,
Acting Sub-Secretary.

ORDER THEREON, 20th September 1876, No. 1,302.

THE Governor in Council agrees with the Board that the claim is inadmissible under the rules, and no special ground for compliance exists.
