Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 27th Nov. 1876.

3. SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. An allowance of Rupees 37-3-9 a year payable in the Tanjore District for the support of a Matam at Conjeveram in the Chingleput District has been left undrawn for the last sixteen years owing to the continued absence of the trustee of the Matam.

* See G.O., 2nd June 1860, ~~that the allowance is usually~~ arrears at intervals of several years and that the Matam is duly maintained. The Board recommend that payment of the arrears be sanctioned.

3. In view to prevent the accumulation of arrears for such long periods, the Board suggest that the allowance be transferred to the Chingleput District and that payment be made regularly to the person in charge of the Matam at Conjeveram. The Collector will report whether there is any objection to this arrangement.

Madras.

Sir,

The Agent of the Gnana
prahasa Samadi Madam at Conjevaram in the District of Chingleput has applied for the disbursement to him of the arrears of the ready money allowance payable to the Madam from the Treasury of this District, from Fasli 1270 to 1285 at Rs. 37-3-9 per annum. The sum payable at

Submitted for the orders of Government.

2. An allowance of Rupees 37-3-9 a year payable in the Tanjore District for the support of a Matam at Conjevaram in the Chingleput District has been left undrawn for the last sixteen years owing to the continued absence of the trustee of the Matam.

• See G. O., 2nd June 1860, No. 912.

As it appears that the allowance is usually drawn in arrears at intervals of several years and that the Matam is duly maintained, the Board recommend that payment of the arrears be sanctioned.

3. In view to prevent the accumulation of arrears for such long periods, the Board suggest that the allowance be drawn for the Chingleput District and that payment be made regularly to the person in charge of the Matam at Conjevaram. The Collector will report whether there is any objection to this arrangement.

Board's Proceedings 15 May 1860
Government Order 2d June 1860 No 912
Board's Proceedings 5th June 1860

Correspondence marginally noted, that it has been usual with the Agent to draw this allowance at intervals of several years, the reason for the delay in drawing the allowance each year being the continued absence of the Agent on pilgrimages to Benares and other places. In September 1860, he has drawn allowance for twenty years from Fasli 1250 to 1269.

3. Though the Government have, in their Order, above quoted, distinctly ordered that the long delay to draw the allowance in question would not be sufficient cause for escheating it, and authorized its continuance, I have, before issuing orders for the disbursement of the Amount — (Rs 595-12-0), above mentioned straight

thought it necessary to obtain Board's instructions to do so, & has been left undrawn for so long a time.

4. On a reference being made to the Collector of Chingleput, he states that the Madam in question is in good order.

5. Under these circumstances I have the honor to request that the Board will be pleased to favor me with their orders on the subject.
