grace in Council was gracious enough to sanction the period to count the service for pension

Besides that he humbly begs to point out that he is equally innocent as three others in the case. much more innocent in having first reported to the superior of the case. Again because he is favored with the period of dismissal to be included into his pen sion service and a mere glance on his part by your gracious and merciful perceiving may come to conclusion that he is entitled to be paid for the period of his service.

And that he further begs to make known your Grace that he is poor and long experienced man and destitute having many dependants for protection whereas was groundlessly dismissed the service and disintere sally has been subject to a great loss and expense With all that he has submitted a petition to the above effect on 15th September 1876 but he is sorry the he is not favor^d with any reply.

Under these circumstances that your petitioner humbly prays your grace in Council will be gracious enough to take a merciful consideration on the part of the destitute and to sanction the payment of arrears for the period in which he was under dismissal (viz) for the 1st th November to the 14th January, 1876.

Most Humbly Sheweth

That your grace's poor petitioner had been dismissed his service in the Treasury Cause. But on his appeal to your grace has been restored to his employ on the 15th January 1876. That the petitioner having taken the charge of the duty he petitioned to

... to the effect
... of a ... he included in his past services. Accordingly that your grace in Council was gracious enough to sanction the period during which the petitioner was under dismissal do count the service for pension. That your petitioner begs to observe that he was equally innocent as three others in the case. Now that your petitioner has been given to knowledge that the Head Yamastah and others have obtained sanction for the payment of their arrears. Since your petitioner is favored with the period of dismissal to be included into his pension and a mere glance on his part by your grace in Council may come to the conclusion that he is also to be favored with the payment that petitioner begs to observe that he he is poor helpless man and a orphan in the vast world and a destitute having many dependants for protection and had been groundlessly dismissed the service and disinterestedly has been subject to a great loss and expense. Under these circumstances that your petitioner humbly prays your grace in Council will be gracious enough to take a merciful consideration on the part of this orphan and to sanction the payment of arrears for the period in which he was under dismissal viz from the 12th November to 1st January 1876-
