Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 4th December 1876.

No. 49. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 27th November 1876, No. 2,981 :—

Read the following letter from J. H. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Bellary, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 24th November 1876, No. 447 :—

In submitting a copy of a memorandum drawn up by Mr. Thornhill, First Member of the Board of Revenue, at present on special duty in this district, I have the honor to state that, in filling up the vacancies caused by the promotion of Revenue Inspectors and others to the post of Additional Inspectors, it will not be possible to find passed candidates in every instance. The men have not yet been all selected, but, to avoid unnecessary correspondence, I have the honor to request that the Board will be pleased to sanction any temporary appointments which may be made though the men may not be passed candidates.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

Memorandum.

Owing to the increasing numbers of persons applying for employment on relief works, and to the difficulty of supervising their payment and maintaining order and discipline amongst the laborers, it has been pointed out that additional assistance is urgently required by the Tahsildars.

2. The Collector of Bellary is, therefore, hereby authorized to entertain one, two, or three additional hands as Inspectors of Relief Works in each taluq according to the numbers of men employed and to the wants of the public.

3. It will generally be convenient that these officers should be of the grade of Revenue Inspectors and Inspectors on the regular establishment. Many may properly be promoted temporarily to the new posts, the pay of which will be fixed at Rupees 40 per mensem for one in each taluq, and Rupees 30 each for the remainder.

13th November 1876.
