No. 462. Read the following endorse dated Ootacamund, 8th

From Mr. C. HALL, Secretary to the
W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secy
1876.

I AM desired, by the Directors of Church Charity School, to bring to the Engineer for Railways, in a letter dated 11th July 1871, that the play-ground for the Asylums was near that office was asked when the boundary of the land of the District Collector of Madras, when the road boundary question would be closed.

2. With his endorsement of 21st furnished copy of a letter to him from Government had at one time authorised 16th September 1873, No. 2,292-A,) or to keep the said road open (G.O., 1 No. 984-A).

No. 984 A).
3. Two years ago the Directors he not be closed, and as these came from a arrangements communicated to the Dir 19th September 1873, No. 2,325, Publ on behalf of the Directors, placed him Collector of Madras. That gentleman, the Directors, expressed, in writing, an op that now given by the Acting Collector.

4. The Directors delayed submitting Government till they had received a report from the Consulting Engineer regarding the boundary. I am accordingly desired that Government orders, the following observations upon the report of the Consulting Engineer be submitted to the Government.

5. The Directors are confident if of 15th April 1874 should bear the Collector; for the effect of not closing benefit to be derived from the ground, former compound taken up by the railway, separated from the remainder of the land, be out of the Directors' power to prevent as would render it a nuisance; further, recreation that may be placed on that land would not be possible to keep the boys, neighbouring cultivated land.

6. It would also be impossible to utilise the bungalow situated on the ground in question, and the Male Asylum, for which it is adapted, but this does not appear to have been considered. The reason this bungalow was not heavy, there were several after. The present chapel is in a state of thorough repair, and it is deemed more advisable to convert the present boys' hospital into a chapel than to repair the present chapel, which might be pulled down.

7. The Directors have all along been desirous to make it the hospital for the Asylum, but the land sufficiently drained; added to, for although the monsoon of 1875 was not heavy, there were several inches of water on the ground for some time after. The reason this bungalow was not heavy, there were several after. The present chapel is in a state of thorough repair, and it is deemed more advisable to convert the present boys' hospital into a chapel than to repair the present chapel, which might be pulled down.

8. I am, further, desirous to ask the Government to give the Directors a clear idea of the properties assigned to the Asylums, and the location of the Civil Orphanages and St. Mary's Church Charity School at Egmore.

ORDER THEREON

CIVIL WORKS, No. 35-A

Government to throw that portion of the road from the new play-ground, in only to so much of the Asylum road as is desired to keep at its full width for the road and to the Asylum its Church, and Jordan's road are given. There will be no longer occasion for the end of the Asylum road, as shown in the Government Order above quoted.

2. The Government acknowledge the Orphan Asylum as enumerated in the July 1876, No. 1,907.

It was not intended by G.O., No. 984-A, of 15th April 1874, to recede from the engagement entered into by the Asylum road which separates its old commands. Paragraph 4 of that order applied to the new station premises, which it was intended to give access to two houses on the south side of the Asylum road, east of St. Andrew's Church, and Jordan's road are given. There will be no longer occasion for the end of the Asylum road, as shown in the Government Order above quoted.

1 confirm their obligations to the Civil Orphan Asylum as enumerated in the 7 of the Secretary's letter. Instructions
