PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 5th August 1876.

Read the following letter from T. KRISTNAMOORTY IYENGAR, Assistant to the Accountant-General, in charge of the Outside Audits, to R. W. LODWICK, Esq., Accountant-General, dated Madras, 20th June 1876:—

I HAVE the honor to submit the following report on the audit of the accounts and the examination of the stock of the General Stamp Office.

2. The last audit of the accounts had been brought up to 31st March 1875. Commencing therefore with 1st April of the same year, I examined the warrant and the receiving registers up to 31st March last, compared the registers with each other and with the cash book, and found them all correct.

3. The stock books were next taken up. The balances were compared with the already audited monthly accounts submitted to the Accountant-General's Office, and the receipts and issues up to the date of stock-taking were checked, as far as possible, with the vouchers produced before me. The books were all found to be regularly kept and initialled by the Superintendent himself.

3. Stock-taking was begun on the 15th instant and continued up to the 19th. The actuals under each class of stamps were agreed with the audited balances on the books, and I beg to submit herewith the usual statement of the quantity and value of stamps in store.

4. In conclusion, I beg to express my warm acknowledgments to Mr. Wright, the Superintendent, for all the assistance he has readily and courteously given me in examining the accounts and the stock.

No. 2,867.
