Acting Secretary.

No. 240. ORDER THEREON: 11th December 1876, No. 1,993.

This Board will instruct the Collector to submit an account of the expenditure incurred and the quantity of work done, with as little delay as possible.

2. The Governor in Council hopes that the works having been in hand for some time now, and every facility having been afforded for the organisation of establishments and systematic supervision, there will be no difficulty in submitting the above information. In future, applications for funds will so far as possible be accompanied by a report as to the progress made and success achieved. Delay can always be avoided by timely application, and the demands for at least one month must be correctly estimated and adequately provided for.

The first thing I saw
 was a large, old, weathered building, with a sign that said "The Old Mill".
 I went in and found
 a man who had been
 there for many years.
 He told me that the mill was built in 1850
 and had been used for many years. He also told me that the mill
 was now being used as a museum.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a formal address, and it begins with the words "I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 28th inst."

But, how different for the young from the old! The young are not so much interested in the past as the old are.
