SIR,

With reference to Gov^t Order. N. 1901, dated 12th August 1876, I have the honor to state that, for the period Colonel Hefsey was detained on special duty at Cotacamund, viz from 13th to 24th June, Mr. Gampert has acted as Deputy Superintendent at Madurai and has claimed acting allowance at Rupees 200 per mensem amounting to Rs 80. Consequently, Col^l Hefsey's detention at Cotacamund requires the confirmation of Government of India.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Recd letter from Acct Genl d/sd August 1906 No 289 the subsequent correspondence.

As the Acct Genl appears to have passed the claim prepared by Mr. J. M.
Perry, the Govt will raise no objection; otherwise it was not intended that Colonel Hickey's detention on the hills for a few days, for the purpose of conferring with the Govt on some changes in the Dept, should be made the ground of any additional expenditure.
