Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 15th December 1876.

No. 351. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 8th December 1876, Miscellaneous No. 10,822. —

Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel C. S. HEARN, Inspector-General of Police, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 30th November 1876, No. 5,389.

I have the honor to forward herewith copy of a letter from the Collector of South Arcot District to the District Superintendent of Police, No. 200, dated 14th October 1876, regarding the temporary salt guard of Gopudalur and Mannabady salt-pans; and to request that you will obtain the sanction of Government for the retention of the guard until 31st October 1876, or two months in excess of the period for which it was originally provided in the Police Budget as recommended by the Collector of the district. The cost of this arrangement is Rs. 121.

Enclosure No. 1.

From J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Collector of South Arcot, to Captain R. G. JENKINS, Superintendent of Police, South Arcot, dated Calcutta, 14th October 1876, No. 200.

I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to allow the extra guards in the Gopudalur Division and the supernumeraries at Mannabady to remain at these places till the end of this month, as the Salt Deputy Collector reports that the manufactures will not be closed at these stations for some time longer.

Submitted for the sanction of Government.
