Note

Under the special circumstances mentioned, it is submitted, that this man may be accepted altogether - there is satisfactory proof that his handwriting is good - if he is allowed to go up again in this one relief - many others will claim a like privilege.
The picture may be a more important relief, and one in which the best of an exam. is necessary to form a correct opinion.
This case must be handled

C. 26. 4/76 R 28. Sep.

The Deputy Collector having charge of two important Delta taluqs, the Establishment small as it is, is overworked and I need hardly mention that Sarveewar under finds little time for private study.
Mr. Foster sent up his case to the Board, who observed in their Proceedings of the 23rd May 1875 & No. 3 P.P. 7, that they do not think that the case is one in which a recommendation to Government for relaxation of the rules would have chance of success."

Subsequently however, the Government have sanctioned some relaxation in the rules of the General Text Examination in their order of the 23rd May 1875 & No. 600 Revenue Department. Under this order, a person in service prior to 1st June 1867 can go up for the General Text in one or more subjects at a time, provided he passes the whole Text within 3 years.

22/3
Sarveewar appeared for the General Text in Telugu in 1868 as candidate No. 1945 and he was successful in passing in

- (1) Distinction and Spelling.
- (2) Grammar and Composition.
- (3) Arithmetic
- (4) History and
- (5) Geography.

but failed in handwriting. It is a great pity that this failure affected his prospects in the service. In 1866 Mr. Wigram certified that his (Sarveewarwar) handwriting was good and I have no doubt it is, as can be seen from Enclosure 2 to this letter. It is very hard that Sarvee-war, should be compelled to appear for all the subjects of the Text simply because he failed many years ago in handwriting a test of which his own superiors are quite as capable of judging as any professional examiner.

Under these circumstances I venture to request that James -wonder may be exempted from the General Test altogether, and that the Board will support my recommendation. If however, this cannot be done, I would sug-gest that the individual be allowed to appear only in handwriting at the next General Test Examination.

is enclosed for information.
