Proceedings of the Chief Commissioner of Mysore.

Letter dated 20th September 1876 from Mr. Kalyana Sundrum Chetty Asstt. Commissioner—

I beg respectfully to bring to your notice that owing to certain inconveniences which I have personally explained to you, I regret that I am unable to continue in my present appointment, which the Chief Commissioner has been pleased to confer on me. I therefore beg you will kindly be pleased to lay this for the favorable consideration of the Chief Commissioner and obtain permission to my resigning the present post of Assistant Commissioner and reverting to my permanent post in the Madras Revenue Board Office about the end of this month. I beg that the Secretary to the Revenue Board at Madras may be officially informed of the same.

Order

Order No. 6147 / 6105 dated 22nd September 1876.

The Chief Commissioner sanctions Mr. Kalyana Sundrum Chetty's application to be permitted to resign his appointment as Assistant Commissioner on probation, and regrets that this step should have been necessitated by the state of his health, which makes him averse from being permanently employed in this Province
