Miscellaneous No 8898

Proceedings of the Board of Academy dated 11th Oct 1876

I read the following:-

From the Collector of Salem

To the Secretary to the Board of Academy, Madras

Sir I have the honor to report the death of the aged scholar of P. Sambaswami, the Scholar of the Nankar Velay, and to recommend for the confer-ment of the Board the following arrangements, which I have made for filling up the vacancy

of P. Sambaswami, the Scholar

service list of Prabalumda Pelly with the copy of the only letter-named the papers. He has served under the late Mr. Pether and myself and temporarily under Mr. Price.
He went with that officer on a tour through a very unhealthy part of the country and was for a short time suffering from an attack of fever, which impaired his reading and writing and rendered him less active and responsible young man, a very fresh magistrate and able.

able to ride any distance. He was for eight months on the convey-channels which are 30 miles along the coast. I was constantly there and did not see him about work there.

I have received from } (C. J. Longley)

In the communication referred to in the second of the foregoing letters the Board expresses the Collector's views in relation to the form of Prabalumda Pelly and request the sanction of Government for his appointment as Subordinate
