Despatched October 3rd 1856

From
H. St. A. Goodrich Esqr.
Acting Collector

To
C. J. Gilder Esqr.
Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Madras

Sir,
I have the honor to recommend that the within application [illegible] Mr. Willows will relieve Mr. MacCarthy my acting [illegible] and about the 20th October I think that until Mr. MacCarthy is [illegible] to another acting appointment he had best be placed in charge of the Talugs of Bimlipatam and Chipurupilly and for the time that the Deputy Collector will be absent he will find it easy to discharge the current duties of the Talukh

Department

Department which he will be able to inspect nearly all the Sick [illegible] which [illegible] in the Circuit of the Army

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
