Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
11th October 1876. No. 1824.

Leave Rules.

No. 86. Read the following letter from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Simla, 18th September 1876, No. 2879:—

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 866, dated 16th May 1876, regarding the admission of certain officers to the benefits of the more favorable leave rules for Uncovenanted Officers, and in reply to communicate the following remarks:—

I am first to observe that one of the principal conditions precedent to the special admission of an officer to the benefits of the favorable rules is that the officer should on the 3rd January 1872 have been holding substantively one of the offices included in Schedule A of the Civil Leave Code. The recent orders of the Secretary of State have not removed this condition. Upon this principle and with reference to the condition as to amount of salary imposed by the Secretary of State in paragraph 14 of his despatch, No. 48, dated 10th February 1876, the Government of India will include the names of the following officers in a supplementary list to be sent to the Secretary of State of officers recommended for admission to the benefits of the more favorable leave rules:—

Mr. W. A. Porter, Principal, Provincial College, Combaconum.
" J. T. Fowler, Inspector of Schools.
" A. A. Gordon, Professor of History.
" E. C. Caldwell, Inspector of Schools.
" T. Madden, do. do.
" E. Garthwaite, do. do.
" H. Bewers, do. do.
" H. Forte, do. do.

The undermentioned Educational Officers in the graded list having been appointed by the Secretary of State, no special orders are necessary in regard to their admission to the favorable rules:—

Mr. F. S. Evans, Professor of Mathematics.
" D. Duncan, Professor of Logic.
" G. Oppert, Professor of Sanscrit.

Mr. H. M. Bustard, First Judge of the Court of Small Causes, Madras, is subject to the rules in Supplement B to the Civil Leave Code, and no orders therefore are required on his claim to be admitted to the more favorable leave rules for Uncovenanted Officers.

Mr. E. Thompson, Principal, Presidency College, Madras, was admitted to the favorable rules by the orders contained in Secretary of State's despatch, No. 421, dated 19th September 1874. No further orders are required regarding his case.

The undermentioned officers having retired from the service, no orders are required regarding them:—

Mr. T. G. Clarke, Magistrate of Police for the Town of Madras.
" E. B. Powell, C.S.I., Director of Public Instruction.

In accordance with the orders contained in paragraphs 12 and 13 of Secretary of State's despatch, No. 48, dated 10th February 1876, regarding officers of the Forest Department, the names of the undermentioned officers of the Forest Department, Madras, who on the 3rd January 1872 held substantive appointments of a rank not lower than that of Assistant Conservators, though their salaries are less than Rupees 6,000 a-year, will be entered in the list of officers recommended for admission to the new rules:—

Mr. J. W. Cherry.	Mr. H. L. Woolridge.
,, C. G. Douglas.	,, R. W. Morgan.
,, R. Wellman.	,, A. W. Pest.
,, H. F. Winter.	,, G. J. S. Ross.
,, W. C. Hayne.

The other officers mentioned in the list submitted with your letter, No. 1555, dated 25th October 1873, excluding those who by the orders contained in the despatch of the Secretary of State, No. 48, dated 10th February 1876, have been admitted to the benefits of the favorable rules, cannot, consistently with the conditions prescribed by the Secretary of State, be admitted to these rules.

No. 37. ORDER THEREON, 11th October 1876, No. 1824.

Communicated to the Revenue Department and to the Accountant-General, the Director of Public Instruction, and the First Judge of the Madras Court of Small Causes.

(True Extract.)

Chief Secretary.

To the Revenue Department.
Accountant-General.
Director of Public Instruction.
First Judge of the Madras Court of Small Causes.
